The learning criteria under the General Dental Council Lifelong Learning Scheme were met for:

GLASGOW ODONTOLOGICAL SOCIETY MEETING

“What I have learned from a lifetime in the dento-legal world”

Mr Kevin Lewis

The aims and objectives of the lecture were:

To explore international developments in the approaches to consent as the law has developed in various parts of the world and explore why Scotland is very much part of these same developments. To discuss litigation trends, explain regulatory trends and discuss the impact of professional standards and guidelines.

The specified learning outcomes for this course were:

- To understand and describe current thinking and expectations in relation to consent
- To understand and describe which area(s) of dentistry have the greatest propensity to create dento-legal problems, and why
- To understand how and why patient expectations have changed and what impact this has on the delivery of dental care and treatment
- To recognise that excellent clinical dentistry is only part of the story, and cannot be relied upon as a complete protection against dento-legal problems
